

The Forum for Research on Languages of Scotland and Ulster 14th Triennial Conference

29-30 November 2024
Ulster University Belfast

Programme

Main theme: Communities, activists, champions

Friday 29 November (Duncairn Centre)
0900-0930	Registration and Coffee
0930-1000	Conference Opening
1000-1100	Plenary 1 (Chair: Frank Ferguson) Warren Maguire (University of Edinburgh) The phonological documentation of traditional dialects of English and Scots in Ulster: History and prospects
	Session 1: Education
1100-1130	Karen Lowing (University of Hull) and Edina Krompák (University of Teacher Education Lucerne) Scots and Swiss German languages in superdiverse education spaces: A Critical Discourse Analysis of Scotland's Scots Language in Curriculum for Excellence (2017) report and Switzerland's Lehrplan 21 curriculum
1130-1200	Louis Coeyman (University of Glasgow) Is Scots a language? Insights from stakeholders in education
1200-1230	Linda Bruce (Open University) From potential to essential? Adult learners as New Speakers of Scots
1230-1330	Lunch break
	Session 2: Working with corpora
1330-1400	Patricia Ronan (TU Dortmund) and Christine Elsweiler (University of Innsbruck) Directives in SPICE-Ireland and ICE Scotland from a cross-varietal perspective
1400-1430	Beth Beattie (University of Glasgow) Establishing a Scottish Reformation discourse: A corpus-based approach

1430-1500	Pia Lehecka (University of Edinburgh) Orthographic evidence for the (im)mobility of Older Scots long back vowels
1500-1530	Coffee break
	Session 3: Ideologies and representations
1530-1600	Hamish Pottinger (University of Oxford) Language ideology, Scots literacy, and the pursuit of 'a language'
1600-1630	Alexander Jarvis (University of Glasgow) A second Scots Census: Mapping the Scots-language data from Scotland's 2011 and 2022 censuses
1630-1700	Petra Poncarova (University of Glasgow) Scots and twentieth-century radical Gaelic magazines
1700-1800	Free time to make short way to the Ulster Scots Agency Building
1800-2000	Evening programme at the Ulster Scots Agency Hub: • Drinks reception and dinner buffet • Billy Kay – Born in Kyle: A love letter tae an Ayrshire childhood

Saturday 30 November (Ulster University, Belfast Campus)
	Session 4: Correspondence
0900-0930	Christine Elswiler (University of Innsbruck), Marina Dossena (University of Bergamo), Sarah van Eyndhoven (University of Canterbury, NZ), Mo Gordon (University of Leiden) Historical corpora of Scottish correspondence: Views on the past, glimpses into the future
0930-1000	Sarah van Eyndhoven (University of Canterbury, NZ) Scots and New Zealand
1000-1030	Coffee break
1030-1200	Grassroots activist panel with invited guests: Conradh na Gaeilge, Linda Ervine, Misneachd, Oor Vyce, Ulster Scots Agency Chair: Joanna Kopaczyk
1200-1315	Lunch break
	Session 5: Registers
1315-1345	Colin Robertson Scots Leid Associe and Scots as a modern legal language
1345-1415	Lucy Jackson (University of Glasgow) Mediatisation of the marginalised: A content analysis of Glaswegian vernacular accent portrayals in film
1415-1445	Dawn Leslie (University of Aberdeen) ChatGPT – The next Scots Makar? (...spoiler alert: probably not)

	Session 6: Ulster perspectives
1445-1515	John Kirk (University of Vienna) Ulster and the Digital Lexical Atlas of Scotland
1515-1545	Alan Millar (Ulster University) Ulster-Scots poocher in an English stream – Charlie Reynolds a very north Antrim language champion
1545-1600	Coffee break
1600-1700	Plenary 2 Frank Ferguson (Ulster University) John Hewitt's Marvellous Lists and the championing of language communities
1700-1730	Business meeting and closing